Unveil a Treasure Trove of Fascinating Facts

- Did you know?
Bananas are naturally radioactive, but the level of radiation is too low to harm humans.
- Fun Fact:

Strawberries are not actually berries, but aggregate fruits. This means that each "seed" on the outside of a strawberry is actually a tiny fruit.

- Amazing Fact:

Carrots were originally purple, not orange. The orange variety we commonly consume today was developed by Dutch farmers in the 16th century.

- Did You Know?

Avocados are the only fruit that contains healthy fats. These fats can help lower cholesterol and reduce the risk of heart disease.

Inspire Healthy Eating Habits for a Lifetime

Our book not only educates young minds but also serves as a catalyst for fostering healthy eating habits. By showcasing the vibrant colors, delightful flavors, and nutritional benefits of fruits and vegetables, we empower children to make informed choices about their diet.
